Secured Note

On May 10, 2022, the Company entered into a secured promissory note in the original principal amount of $1,145,520.08 (the “Loan”) with Jason Barnard and Christina Barnard (the “Lenders”). Effective May 10, 2023, the Company and the Lenders agreed to amend the promissory note to extend its term by one year and increase the interest rate to 11.35% payable in monthly installments of $8,000, with the balance of accrued interest payable on maturity (the “First Amended Note”). On April 26, 2024, the Company and the Lenders agreed to further amend the First Amended Note by issuing a second amended note (the “Second Amended Note”), which supersedes and replaces the First Amended Note, in the principal amount of $1,144,205.63 having a maturity date of May 10, 2025, accruing interest at the same rate of 11.35% per annum compounded monthly with monthly payments of $10,835, with the balance of accrued interest payable on maturity. The Second Amended Note is repayable at any time without penalty and matures on May 10, 2025.

Each of the Lenders are senior officers of the Company, and Mr. Barnard is a director of the Company, and the Lenders are, jointly, the largest shareholders of the Company. The amendment of the terms of the Loan and the issuance of the Second Amended Note constitutes a “related party transaction” under the policies of the Canadian Securities Exchange and Multilateral Instrument 61-101 - Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions (“MI 61-101”). As the Loan is less than 25% of the current market capitalization of the Company, the Loan is exempt from the formal valuation requirements of MI 61-101 by virtue of Section 5.5(a) – Fair Market Value Not More Than 25% of Market Capitalization. The Company is relying on Section 5.7(1)(f) – Loan to Issuer, No Equity or Voting Component for exemption from minority approval requirements of MI 61-101 since the Loan is not convertible into securities of the Company and since the Loan has been obtained on reasonable commercial terms that are not less advantageous to the Company than if the Loan was obtained from an arm’s length person. The terms of the Second Amended Note have been reviewed and unanimously approved by the Company's board of directors as well as the Company's audit committee.
